

Appropriate Wedding Gifts

The selection of a proper gift for the bride is at times very difficult. We have made a study of their selection and have at our store an endless variety of articles particularly suited for this occasion.

Have just unpacked and are now displaying the finest line of new cut glass ever brought to our city.

Our silverware is of many designs and the new pieces we are now showing were selected with great care by our buyer while in the eastern cities during the summer.

We are always pleased to receive visitors.

Hershey Institute Proves Big Success

The Tribune man, along with a number of other North Platte people, attended the Hershey Institute Friday and he felt well repaid for the trip. While the short course program had closed the previous evening, we had an opportunity to witness the flag raising and view the exhibits, both of which were interesting. At three o'clock a crowd of several hundred assembled in front of the large and splendid school building—a building of which Hershey may, and no doubt does, feel proud—where an address was delivered by Judge Grimes. This was followed by the presentation of the flag from the North Platte Elks to the Hershey school, E. H. Evans making the presentation speech; and Dorsey Leypoldt the speech of acceptance. The flag was then unfurled, appropriate selections being rendered by the school children and by the North Platte military band.

The exhibits were displayed in the basement of the school building and consisted of grains, grasses, fruits, domestic science and very creditable specimens of school work from the Hershey, O'Fallon and Nichols schools. The agricultural exhibit was especially fine, and certainly showed up the resources of the country to splendid advantage. There was also a nice display of fancy work by the ladies.

The stock display was large and included many fine animals, the gentlemen from the east part of the state who acted as judge saying that he never tied ribbons on animals where so great a percentage ranged so high in quality. During the afternoon there was a parade of the horses, mules and jacks.

From those who daily attended the short course week we learn that it was a pronounced success in every way, the speakers assigned for the various subjects being particularly good.

President Koch and Secretary Thompson who worked so earnestly for the success of the institute, and also those who assisted them, certainly deserve great credit for the success of the short course week, and in bustling the exhibits displayed the bustling spirit in a commendable degree. In fact that Hershey should be able to get up such an affair is creditable to the town and country contiguous. The Tribune is proud that Hershey and the Hershey section is part of Lincoln county; and it ever stands ready to help them boost anything they propose, feeling confident that their demands will never be unfair to other portions of the county.

Great Day at Christian Church.

The interest and attendance at the evangelistic meetings has been generally increasing and Sunday reached its height.

The bible school hour was given over to a rally when Mr. Whiston gave his address "The Voyage of Life."

He showed the great danger of drifting aimlessly through life without a purpose. Christ is the great Captain who can guide to safety our ship of life if we but choose Him as our pilot.

There were 285 present at bible school and twelve were added to the church from the bible school at close of rally. At morning church hour Mr. Whiston spoke on "The Old Love," based on the Book of Revelation. Mr. Whiston showed that the true christian or christian minister must be sound in doctrine, in moral conduct, and in service to the world, but if having all these the old love, or first love that one has for Christ and his cause at their conversion has died out they are getting away from Christ's spirit and loving favor. It is not so much our gifts as it is ourselves, our lives that Christ wants.

At the evening service the church was packed, only standing room being left. Mr. Knowles sang a beautiful solo after which Mr. Whiston preached his sermon "Knocking Away the Props."

Mr. Whiston took up carefully the different excuses men give for not being christians and cleared up each one. He showed that man is not simply a creature of circumstance and environment but that he would be to a great extent what he determined to be regardless of circumstances. Some people say to educate in order to uplift, but the educated criminal is the most dangerous. Intellectualism is not christianity, as some intellectual giants such as Edgar Allen Poe and Lord Byron were the vilest of moral degenerates. Morality alone cannot save a man, for christianity involves morality but morality does not involve christianity. Some people say they won't be christians, because they are afraid they can't hold out. Mr. Whiston showed that if a life is honestly surrendered to Christ and we live each day as it comes that we will be strengthened and upheld in overcoming temptation. Then a man must keep away from all temptation. If he makes a mistake and falls get up and try it over and not give up because of one slight failure. Being a christian, is not a matter of feeling like it. Obedience to Christ comes first and then the feeling will come.

There were ten added to the two church services, making a total of twenty-two on Sunday. Total number to date is sixty-four.

The subject for Tuesday night is "Drifting." Wednesday night Mr. Whiston will give his special lecture sermon on popular amusements entitled "The Drama of Life." Thursday night "The Good Samaritan and Others."

There will be illustrated songs every night and illustrated scripture part of the time. A question box is conducted by Mr. Whiston where any question you may wish cleared up may be placed. Everyone invited and bring all your friends and the strangers that are in town.

CRYSTAL THEATRE

Tuesday, October 14th

"A Forest Romance" is a two reel Bison produced by Mr. Montgomery and featuring Mona Darkfeather, and is a little different from the conventional Indian pictures. There are interesting illustrations of the building of an Indian encampment, the erection of wigwams, etc. It is a straight Indian story, the white man intruding in but one or two scenes. The selection of backgrounds is especially commendable.

"Dress Reform" is a crystal comedy. The young wife's mother arrives and insists on Pearl wearing bloomers. Chester, to punish them, dresses as a woman. Quite an amusing situation results.

Wednesday, October 15th

"The Stolen Love" is a two reel Imp. Local coloring, the atmosphere of the fishing village and the sea, the splendid acting of the players and the simple story that always has a universal appeal, makes this picture a pleasing offering. Pete, a fisher lad, is engaged to Jennie. On an impulse she elopes with his cousin, Albert, who turns out bad. She returns home. Albert follows and engages in a scheme to rob Pete's net. Failing to recognize, Jennie shoots and kills.

"A Would-be Detective" is a Gem picture of burlesque Sherlock comedy.

Thursday, October 16th.

"The Banker's Daughter" is a two reel Clair story of love and finance. The handsome young hero wins the banker's daughter after he has faced death twice through love of her. Milly Bright is the heroine and Bob Frazer is the hero. The other artists appearing are Wm. Sheerer, Fred Truesdell and the "Eclair Kid."

"The Flower Girl and the Counterfeiter," an Imp release, tells the story of a flower girl, who sends her savings to the discharged, telling him to brace up. He carries out these instructions and by her aid rounds up the counterfeiting gang and is reinstated on the force.

Business Is Speeded Up by Telephone

In present day business life, time is the all-important factor. A premium has been put on dispatch.

And to meet this demand the Bell Telephone has practically eliminated space and delay.

Today the man with goods to buy, customers to see, or business tangles to unsnarl, calls the waiting operator and laughs at the limits of time and distance.

The Lutheran Brotherhood were very pleasantly entertained at the home of A. Splinter, who lives west of town, last evening. A business meeting was held after which a chicken supper was served.

Miss Myrtle Murphy, of Brady, came yesterday to spend several days with relatives.

Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines.

If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codeine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. For sale by all dealers.

Since the public's attention has been called to the fact that it takes $3,000 worth of repairs to keep some cars running it simply emphasizes how wonderfully economical the Buick line really is. We carry less than $50 worth of repairs. The fact that one make of car sells faster in St. Louis than some other make does not mean anything. Everybody knows that cheaper things sell in bulk.

We will have all model Buicks on display this week excepting the six cylinder B55. Every car we sell has an electric self-starter, all metal parts nickel finish. (NO BRASS)
